

Sample Interactive PDF Form

Please complete the following form. Once finished, click on the Submit button. A New Message window will open in your default email program with my address and the completed PDF automatically loaded. All you need to do is click Send and the form will be delivered. It's that simple!

Business name

Your name

Email address

Some questions about your business:

Are you set up with broadband internet for fast delivery of electronic files?	Yes	Do you keep the contact details, including email addresses, of all your customers?	Yes	Would you like to get more feedback from your customers?	Yes
	No		No		No
					Maybe

If you answered yes to any of the above questions, you might be interested to see the user-friendly features an electronic PDF form can offer:

Text fields are great ways to get direct comments from your customers. They can be single line or larger, and text can spill beyond the visible area

Or keep it really simple with check boxes      Click one      Click two      Click many

For multiple choice, radio boxes are ideal      True      False      Not sure

Too many choices? No problem, when you can stack as many options as you like into a space-efficient Combo Box like this

Now you have a good idea of what interactive PDF forms can do, you might like to think about whether they can be put to work for your business. A simple form like this one can be yours for as little as $150. Please let me know what you think of interactive PDF forms by typing into the text field below. All feedback welcome.

